Marc San Soucie, City Councilor since Nov 2008, is a strong supporter of the City's renowned police force. He believes that our strong community-based Police Department, with its focus on communication and connection with our diverse citizenry, is the ideal kind of organization for our growing, people-oriented City. Marc recognizes that our Department is pro-active regarding crime prevention and community education, conducts diligent, comprehensive investigations in pursuit of offenders, and is well disciplined and trained when defusing dangerous situations and he will strive to maintain and enhance those characteristics. Marc lists the Police as one of Beaverton's primary assets in his discussions with people from neighboring communities underscoring Beaverton residents' City pride.

Marc says that this is an exciting time for Beaverton, with the Community Vision, the Civic Plan, downtown redevelopment, and more. It's also a challenging time given the economy and the needs of many of our citizens. He says that hard work will be needed from everyone involved with the city to achieve these goals and that we must be persistent and insistent on their achievement. Marc believes that the Police Department will be an important leadership component in this process. Marc is a responsible, professional, collaborative leader for Beaverton and is committed to public safety. We look forward to working with him to make Beaverton a safer and better City. Please join the Beaverton Police Association in supporting Marc San Soucie.
